University of Minnesota Panhellenic Bylaws

The Panhellenic Creed

We, as undergraduate members of women's fraternities, stand for good scholarship, for guarding of good health, for maintenance of fine standards, and for serving, to the best of our ability, our college community. Cooperation for furthering fraternity life, in harmony with its best possibilities, is the ideal that shall guide our fraternity activities.

We, as Fraternity Women, stand for service through the development of character inspired by close contact and deep friendship of individual fraternity and Panhellenic life. The opportunity for wide and wise human service, through mutual respect and helpfulness, is the tenet by which we strive to live.

Article I: Name

The name of this organization shall be the Panhellenic Council at the University of Minnesota, hereinafter referred to as the Panhellenic Council.

Article II: Purpose

The purpose of the Panhellenic Council shall be to develop and maintain sorority life and inter-sorority relations at a high level of accomplishment, and in doing so:

- A. Foster the development of a united fraternity-sorority Greek Community.
- B. Foster positive relationships between the Greek Community, the University Community, and the outside community.
- C. Promote superior scholarship as basic to intellectual achievement.

D. Provide opportunities for women in the Panhellenic Community to develop leadership, interpersonal, and group skills.

E. Act in accordance with all National Panhellenic Conference (NPC) Unanimous Agreements and policies, and all rules established by the Panhellenic Council that do not violate the sovereignty, rights, and privileges of member chapters.

F. The organization shall comply with all University policies and procedures, as well as local, state, and federal laws and regulations.

Article III: Membership

Section I. Membership classes

There shall be three classes of membership: Regular, Provisional, and Associate and they can be determined eligible for more than one position by the Eligibility Committee.

5. Each member of the outgoing Panhellenic Executive Board must submit a question for the interview section. Panhellenic delegates will be offered the opportunity to submit a question, if desired.

6. Upon review of paper applications, the Eligibility Committee must determine by majority vote the pool of eligible applicants for each officer position to be presented at the following Panhellenic Council Delegate Meeting. This eligibility pool shall further be shared with chapter members through their respective Panhellenic delegate.

B. Eligibility Committee

2. The Eligibility Committee shall be composed of the outgoing Panhellenic Executive Council, as well as the Panhellenic Advisor as an ex-officio non-voting member.

3. The committee will review all applications prior to releasing the eligibility pool.

4. If a designated member of the Eligibility Committee has applied for a Panhellenic Executive office in the upcoming election, they may not participate in the eligibility discussions relative to officer positions they are running for. A current Executive Board member running for a second term may have their position fulfilled by a director level position chosen by the remainder of the Panhellenic Executive Council.

5. Members of the Eligibility Committee will go through implicit bias training prior to elections.

C. Eligibility Process Procedures

1. Upon review of all applications, the Eligibility Committee must determine by majority vote a pool of eligible applicants for each officer position to be presented at the following Panhellenic Council Delegate Meeting.

2. The eligibility pool will consist of formal recommendations for each position from the Eligibility Committee for the upcoming Executive Council elections.

3. More than one candidate may be deemed eligible for the same position, if the committee deems that all candidates are qualified. During elections only one candidate may be elected to each position.

4. The Eligibility Committee may deem no one eligible for a position if they do not feel any candidates meet the qualifications.

5. Any candidates who were not formally deemed eligible and are considering running from the floor must notify the Executive Vice President by the Wednesday prior to elections.

6. The eligibility pool will be announced a week before elections at the Panhellenic Council Delegate Meeting after all candidate applications have been reviewed by the Eligibility Committee. This eligibility pool shall further be shared with chapter members through their respective Panhellenic delegate.

D. Running Off the Floor

1. Notification and submission of your application for the position you are running for shall be given to the Executive Vice President.
2. Any individual that is eligible for a position may run off the floor.
3. If a person ran for a position and was not deemed eligible, they may run off the floor for a different position. The individual must be deemed eligible for the new position they have chosen to run for.
4. The Eligibility Pool shall be revised and released following the verification of eligibility of candidates who run off the floor.

E. Elections

1. Elections will be held during the Panhellenic Council Delegate Meeting one week after the eligibility pool has been announced.
2. At the elections meeting, candidates of each position will present their speech with a four-minute time limit.
3. The candidates must be present during their election time to present their platform and answer questions from chapter voting members, unless the candidate has an exam that conflicts with the election time or another academic conflict deemed as excused by the Executive Council.
 - i. Chapter Representatives will have four minutes to ask questions to the candidate after the four-minute speech has been completed.
 - ii. The same questions will be asked for each candidate.
 - iii. All other candidates for the respective position shall be asked to leave the room during other candidates' speeches and questions.
4. Following the speeches and questions, all candidates for the position will be asked to leave the room. The floor will be open for discussion for four minutes by the delegates. Discussion may only be of a constructive nature.
5. A delegate must move to vote. If a designated chapter delegate has applied for a Panhellenic Executive office, they may not participate in election discussions relative to officer positions they are running for. They shall instead be replaced by an alternate delegate of their choosing.

6. Voting will be conducted via electronic ballot.
8. Quorum must be present, and officers will be elected by a majority vote.
 - i. If a majority vote is attained, the new executive officer is inducted into office at the last Panhellenic Council meeting of the semester.
 - ii. If a majority vote is not attained, then a runoff will take place between the two candidates with the top two most votes.
 - iii. If there is a tie, balloting should continue until the tie is broken or a candidate withdraws. If an individual office remains unfilled, the application process will begin again. Eligible chapter members will be given one week to complete the application, and are then subject to an interview by the Eligibility Committee.
9. Each elected officer will be announced by the Panhellenic President after each position is elected.
 - a. Order of election and announcement shall begin with the President, followed by the officer position with the highest number of eligible individuals in the eligibility pool in descending order.

F. Office-Holding Limitations

1. No more than three individuals of the same member sorority may be selected to serve on the Panhellenic Executive Board.
2. No Panhellenic Executive Board Office may be held by women of the same member sorority for more than two consecutive terms.
3. Panhellenic delegates may vote to overturn either of the previously listed office-holding limitations if an eligibility pool consists only of candidates of chapters that are already represented at full capacity on the elected Executive Board.
4. If Panhellenic delegates vote against overturning, the election process shall be extended and delegates will return to chapter members to encourage applying for the remaining open positions.

G. Appointed Positions

1. An application and interview process shall determine Recruitment Assistant(s), Rho Alpha Coordinator, and Director of Informal Recruitment positions. The interview team shall consist of the Panhellenic President and Vice President of Recruitment.
2. Any other appointed positions will also undergo a application and interview process by the panhellenic president and the executive council member that directly oversees them.
